

Retreat

Ixchel

Maya Goddess of the Moon, Fertility, Medicine

4th to 10th of September 2022

Isla Mujeres Cancun Mexico

Isla-Mujeres

Life is not about the destination it is about the journey, how we live, work, share and love

Isla's history dates back over 1500 years when it was part of the Maya province, Ekab. The island served as the sanctuary for the goddess Ixchel, the Maya goddess of the moon, fertility, medicine and happiness. The Temple was located at the South point of the island and was also used as the lighthouse. The light from torches was shown through holes in the walls, which could be seen by the navigators at sea. The Maya also came to the island to harvest salt from the salt lagoons. Isla is the easternmost point of Mexico. As an aspect of the divine feminine on Isla Mujeres the Virgin's first shrine was a small palm and wood Chapel; at a later date moving "Her" to the place that "She" presently occupies in the church was not easy. More than eight men could scarcely lift her...upon finally moving "Her", the small palm chapel burned down completely to the astonishment of all those present. It is said that the Virgin walks on the water around the island from dusk to dawn looking for her "sisters". Some years ago an Islanders saw the Virgin walking on the sea early in the morning. Later that morning her dress was found to be contained burrs and sand.

Celebrate Your Inner Goddess

A deeper experience

We have chosen and been chosen at this time to travel to this place to celebrate and confirm the Harvest Moon. The time of gathering in for all that has been planted. Therefore it is incredibly important that in the months prior to taking this trip, that you cultivate the seeds of your true self to blossom forth in the next phase of your existence. The journey is not limited to women, but also must include men who are desirous of cultivating their creative nature. As the Taoists state “Know the masculine but keep to the feminine”. Your unforgettable journey will begin with a series of mediations with a work book to help keep you focused on achieving your dreams and desires with the goal of the highest good for all.
